Then What?

- A CAS Coordinator, will review the Public Accommodations Request form, and contact the student to schedule an interview within a week.
- The student and the CAS Coordinator will discuss and decide on specific accommodations.
- The Coordinator will approve the accommodations in ACCESS CAS.
- The student and each instructor will receive an e-mail informing that an Access Plan (formerly Accommodation Letter) can be viewed can be viewed in ACCESS CAS (Neither signs it at this time).
- Students are responsible for contacting each instructor to schedule a meeting to discuss accommodations in a timely manner.
- We ask students to meet with professors/instructors as part of learning to be a self-advocate, but at any time, the student or faculty would like a coordinator from the Center for Accessibility to attend the meeting with them we would certainly be part of the process.
- Once students meet with Instructors, discuss the accommodations, and agree, both student and instructor must e-sign the Access Plan.

Accommodations are not in place until BOTH the student and the Instructor have met and agreed to the accommodations, and signed the Access Plan.
